Actions to stop doing:
Stop waiting around after finishing a task. Stop postponing tasks. Stop making excuses for not getting work done, there are always open tasks and documents to finish up.

Actions to start doing:
Start meeting deadlines. We need to communicate better what tasks each group member is assigned. In addition, we need to start finishing all required documents and planned features before deadlines.

Actions to keep doing:
Keep working on what is required for final project submission. This week we have been getting better with communication, in addition to using slack and trello we have also been meeting more in person. Our additional in person meetings have lead to greater collaboration and more efficiently.
